Come tell me where the Maid is found

A BALLAD,

Introduced in the Opera of the Haunted Tower.

BY

Mr. Braham.

Composed by

SIR JOHN STEVENSON Mus. Doc.

Entd. at Sta. Hall. London. Price 2s.

Published at J. Power's Music Warehouse (34) Strand and W. Power's (4) Westmorland Street Dublin.

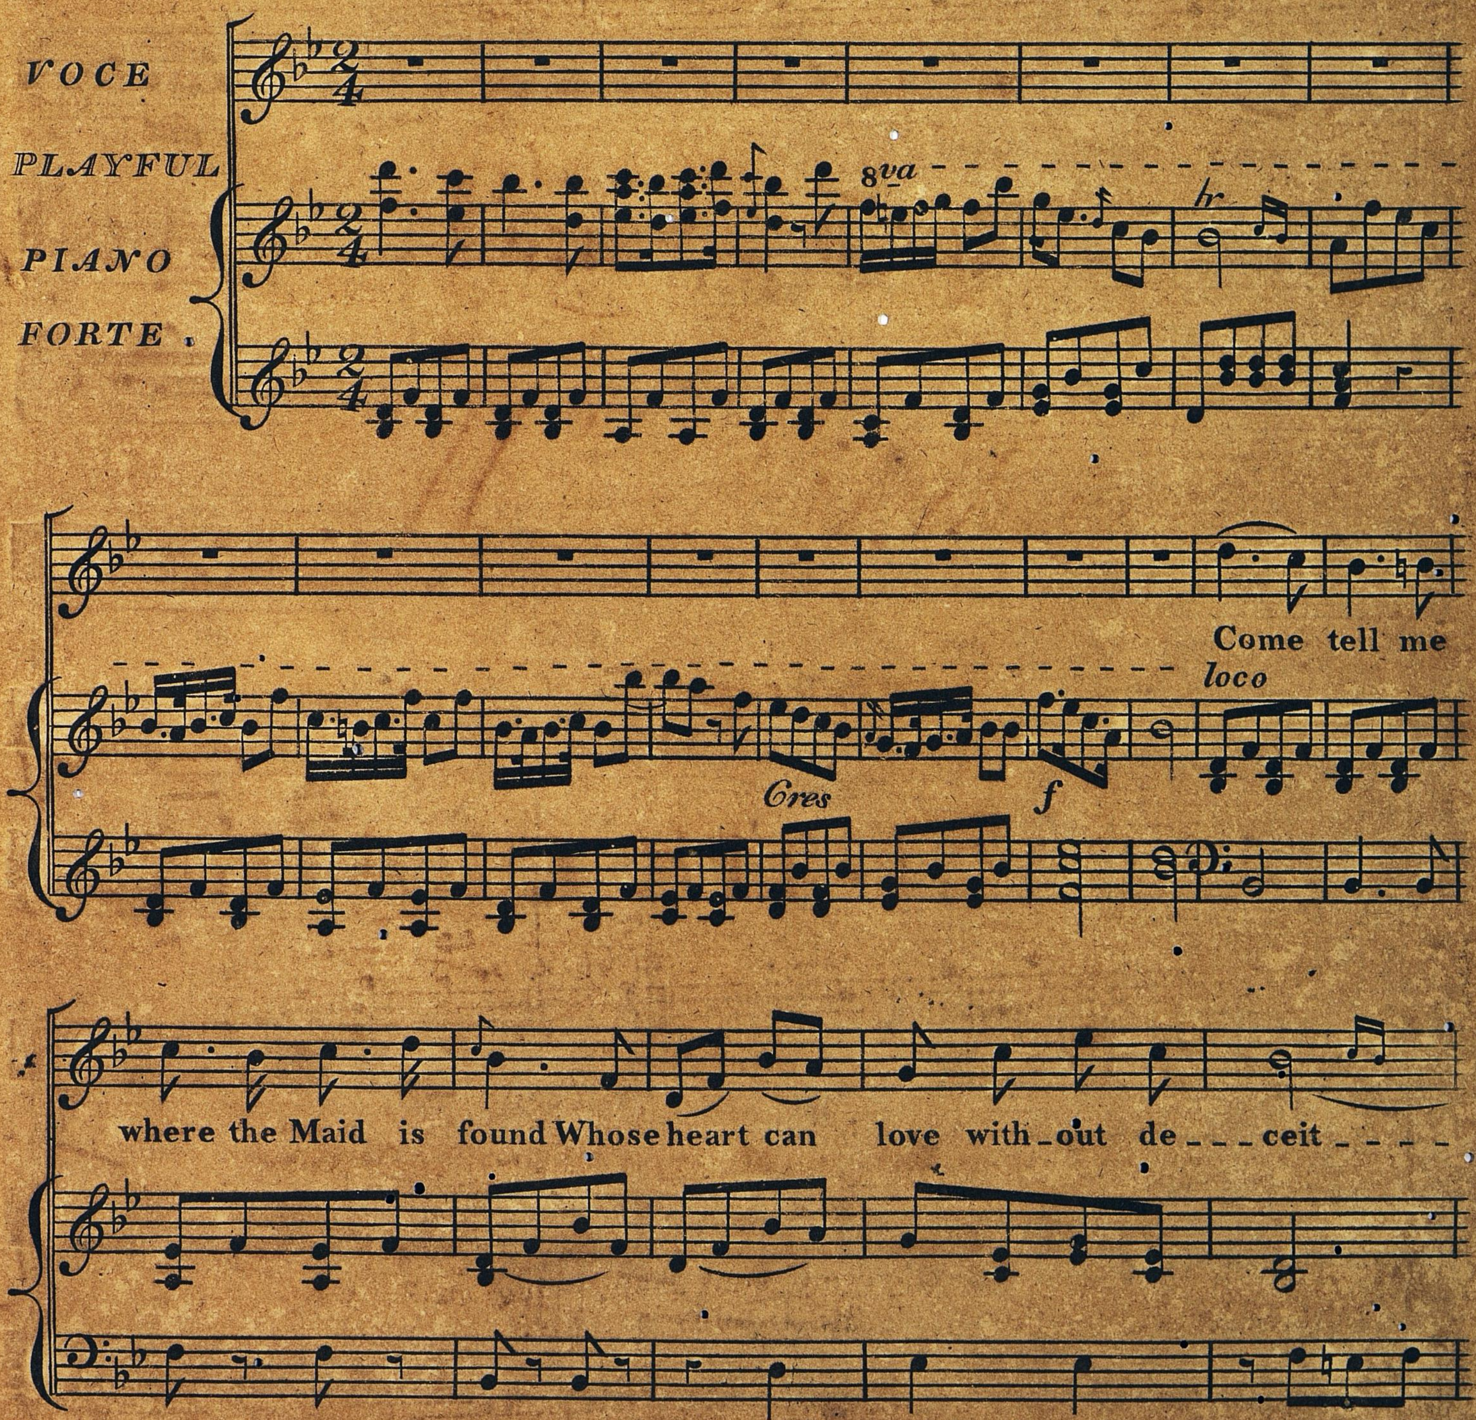
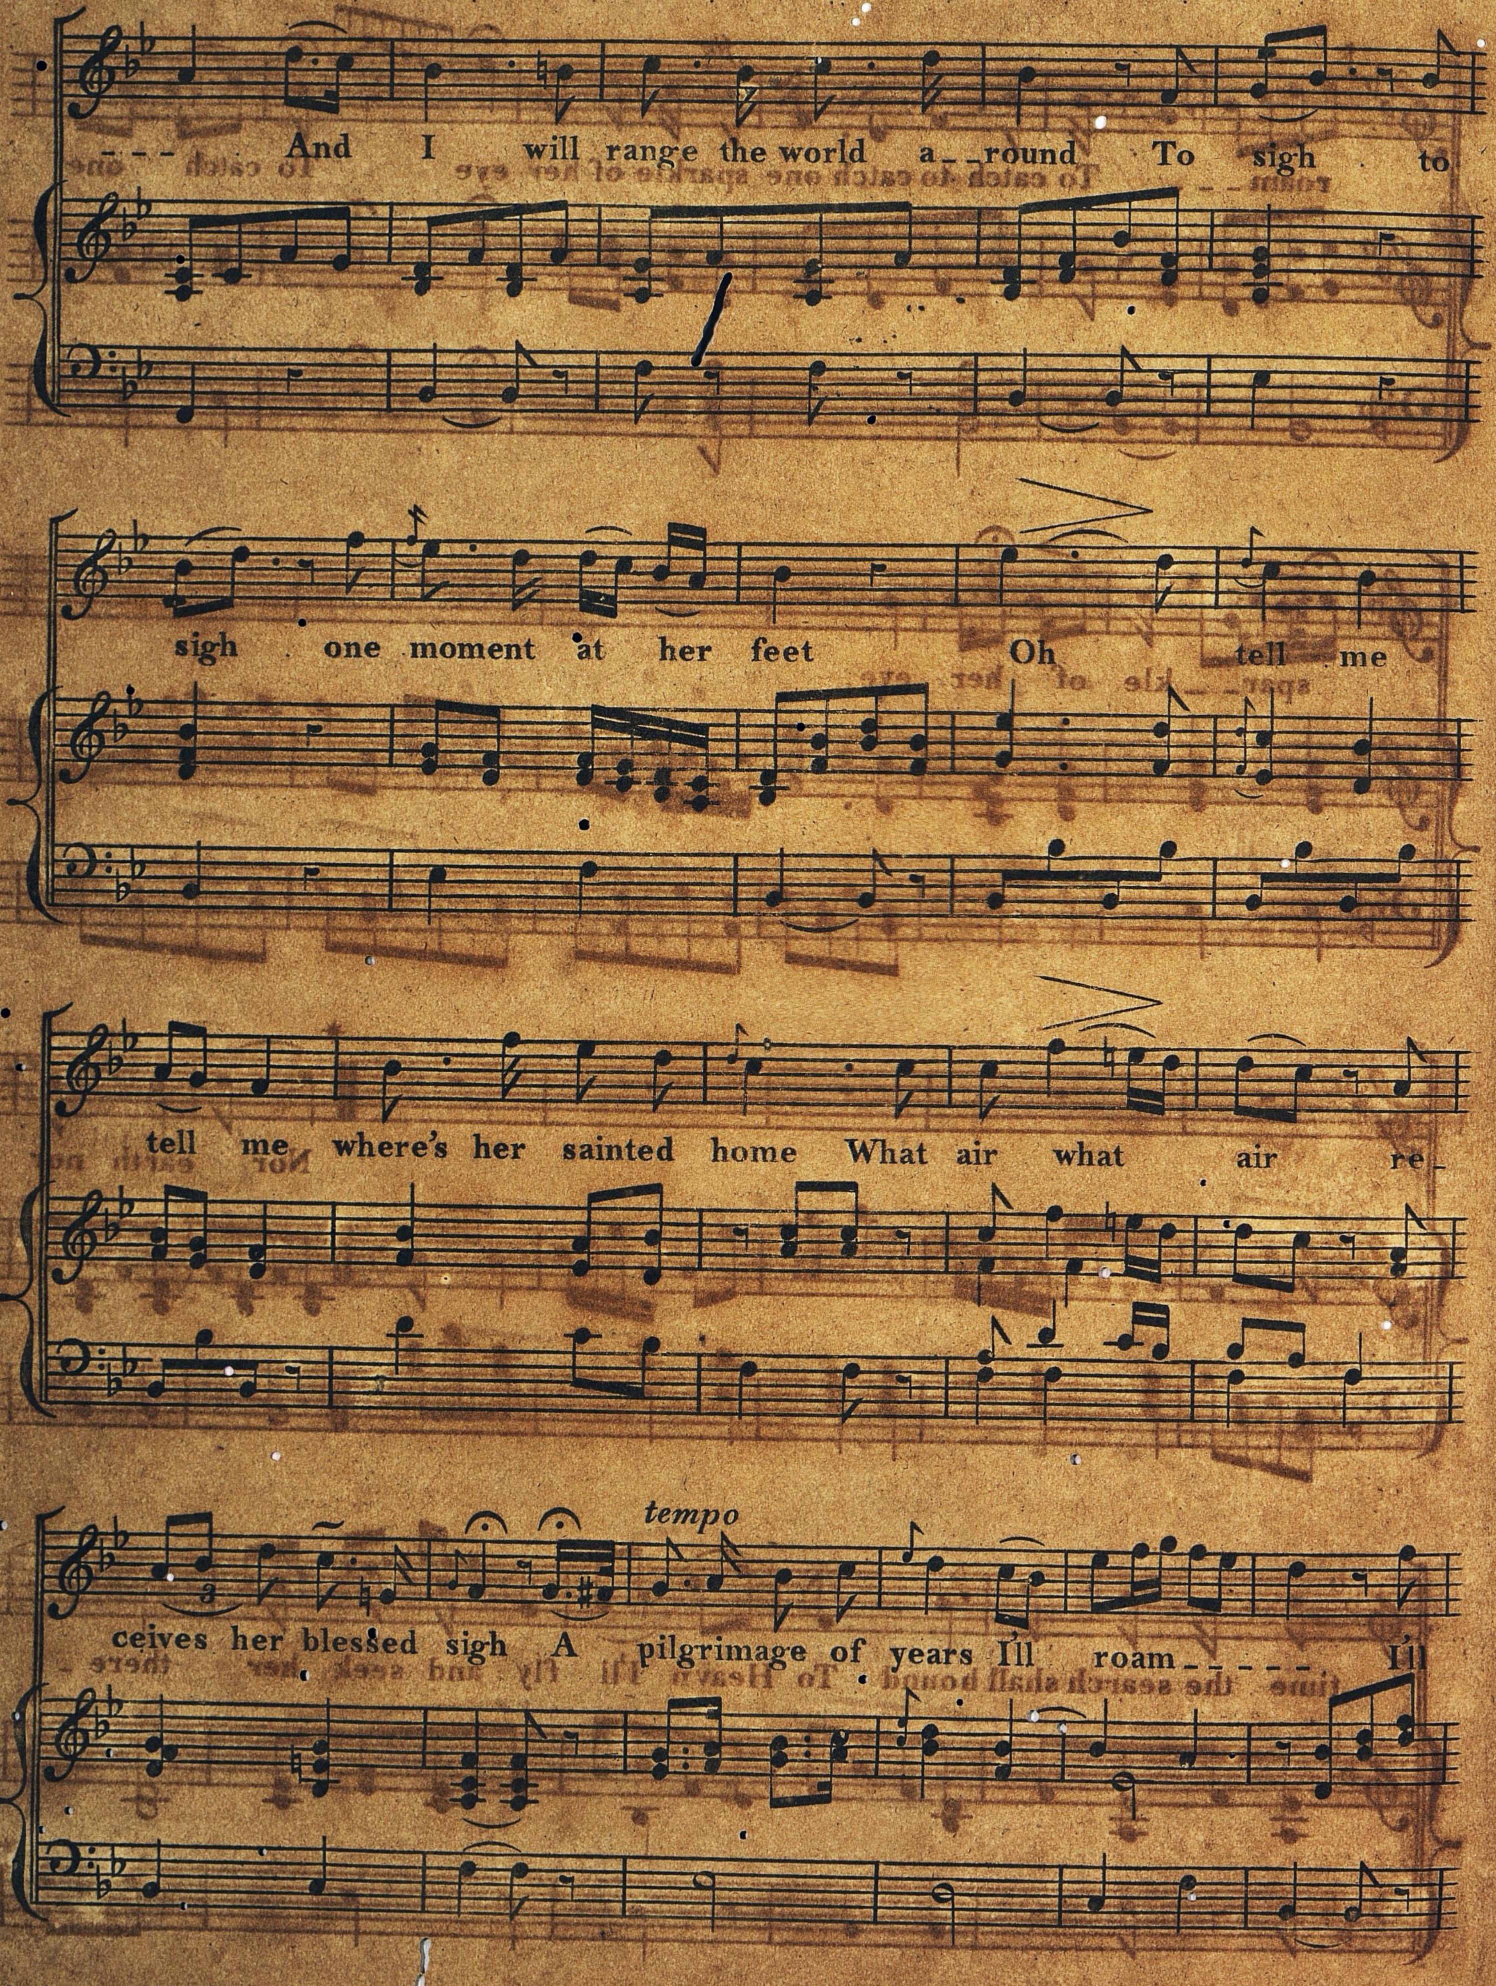
Come tell me where the Maid is found

The Words by T. Moore Esq.r Music by Sir J. Stevenson



V. S.



- - - And I will range the world a_ _round To sigh to sigh one moment at her feet Oh tell me tell me where's her sainted home What air what air re_ tempo ceives her blessed sigh A pilgrimage of years I'll roam_ _ _ _ I'll ✳ This Verse has been added (with Mr. Moore's permission) by a Friend.

- - - - To hear her in each An_gel sound And view and view her in the star_ry sphere Oh _ _ hap_ _less hap_less still if from that height My glance shall reach shall reach her here be_low To her my soul shall wing shall wing its

for flight shall wing - - - - its flight For her for her a ad lib
Cadenza
thousand Heav'ns fore - go For her a thou - - - sand
tr
Heav'ns fore - - go.
ff